

Spiritual: PowerLife Retreat 2007

It really was amazing to see God moving at the PowerLife retreat weekend in November. It was not only a highlight of the year for the kids who attended, but the adult Pak leaders as well. It encouraged my faith and walk with the Lord so much that I wouldn't have wanted to be anywhere else that weekend.

Several of our girls were touched by God's Spirit on Saturday night. After initially leaving the ministry room, they came back in, apparently hungry for more. They received prayer from adults, and then proceeded to minister to one another. I was glad to see that three of the girls were comfortable enough to go to another PakAdult (who they knew well) for prayer, too. And one of the girls in our Pak prayed to accept Jesus as her Lord. I awoke in the middle of the night Saturday, just bubbling with excitement, as I realized that the angels and saints in heaven were celebrating her decision too! And I... I felt God speaking to me very clearly.

I'm so excited to discover what more God will do with the girls in our Pak. He is indeed alive!
